

AHC31516 Certificate III in Indigenous Land Management

Industries: Agriculture, Horticulture and Conservation and Land Management

Enrol online at: <https://bit.ly/32vLE02>

This qualification provides a vocational outcome required for an Indigenous land worker operating within Aboriginal communities, following community protocols and using a mix of traditional and contemporary land management strategies.

As a Supply Nation Registered company, Walan Miya is proud to work with Aboriginal communities in NSW to establish and deliver a program that focuses on pathways into further education and employment for our clients through the successful delivery of this program.

This is a 36-week course run at various locations around NSW.
